CASE NO. 07CV2092W (LSP)

DECLARATION OF DEBORAH L.
RAYMOND, ESQ. IN SUPPORT OF
PLAINTIFFS' APPLICATION
FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

I, DEBORAH L. RAYMOND hereby declare:

1. I am an attorney duly admitted to practice law as a member of the State Bar of California and I am admitted to practices in the Southern District of California and all courts of the

1 State of California. I am a sole practitioner with offices located at 380 Stevens Avenue, Suite 205,
2 Solana Beach, California 92075. The following declaration is based upon my personal knowledge
3 such that if called as a witness, I could competently testify thereto.

5 3. On August 7, 2007, I was retained by Lowell and Sandra Labertew ("Plaintiffs")
6 to represent them with regard to claims relating to a loan transaction secured by Plaintiffs' principal
7 residence entered into in November 2006 (the "Transaction").

9 4. On August 18, 2007, I mailed a Notice of Rescission to defendants Rick and 10 Beverlee Wilkes. A copy of the Notice of Rescission mailed on August 18, 2007, along with copies
11 of proof of delivery are attached to the Complaint filed in this Court on October 31, 2007.

13 5. On August 22, 2007, I had a telephone conversation with Mr. And Mrs. Wilkes,
14 during which I requested a copy of Plaintiffs' entire loan file. Mrs. Wilkes insisted that the 15 Transaction was in full compliance with all laws but was hesitant in providing me with copies of the 16 entire file, yet she represented to me that she wanted to be cooperative. So, I requested that she send
17 me a copy of the loan origination file showing that all the documents required by law were provided
18 to Plaintiffs. When the conversation ended, it was my understanding that Mrs. Wilkes was going to 19 provide me with a copy of the documents contained in Plaintiffs' loan origination file.

21 6. Instead of receiving documents, I received a letter dated September 12, 2007
22 claiming to be in response to the rescission letter dated August 18, 2007. A copy of the letter dated
23 September 12, 2007 is herein attached as Exhibit "DLR-A".

24
25 7. On September 18, 2007, I telephoned Mr. And Mrs. Wilkes at the telephone
26 number provided in the September 12, 2007 letter. I again spoke with Mrs. Wilkes, who stated that 27 she needed to know specifically what I was looking for. I informed her that Plaintiffs claim that they did not receive certain documents that they were entitled to by law. Again, Mrs. Wilkes

1 insisted that the loan was in full compliance with all laws. I again requested copies of Plaintiffs'
2 loan file. Again, when the conversation ended, it was my understanding that Mrs. Wilkes would
3 provide me with a copy of documents from Plaintiffs' loan transaction.

5 8. After waiting 10 days and not receiving any documents, on September 28, 2007, I
6 mailed a letter to Mr. And Mrs. Wilkes requesting a status on the documents and requesting that
7 they postpone filing a Notice of Trustee's Sale until after they have given me a short period of time
8 to review the transaction documents that they were going to provide. A copy of the letter dated
9 September 28, 2007, along with proof of delivery is herein attached as Exhibit "DLR-B".

11 9. On October 25, 2007, prior to receiving any Transaction documents from Mr. And 12 Mrs. Wilkes, I was informed that a Notice of Trustee's Sale had been taped to Plaintiffs' door at 13 their home, and a sale date was scheduled for November 14, 2007. A copy of the Notice of 14 Trustee's Sale is herein attached as Exhibit "Comp. E".

16 10. On October 26, 2007, I received a letter dated October 18, 2007, from Mrs.
17 Wilkes along with two documents, a Notice of Right of Rescission containing my clients' signatures
18 and a Truth-In-Lending Disclosure Statement dated 11/08/2006. A copy of the letter dated October
19 18, 2007 is herein attached as Exhibit "DLR C" and a copy of the of the Notice of Right of 20 Rescission is herein attached as Exhibit "Comp. D-1" and a copy of the Truth-In-Lending
21 Disclosure Statement dated 11/08/2006 is herein attached as Exhibit "Comp. D-2".

23 11. On October 31, 2007, the Complaint for the above caption matter was filed with 24 the Court.

25
26 12. On November 1, 2007, I spoke with Mrs. Wilkes. I informed Mrs. Wilkes that a 27 Complaint had been filed and I offered to provide her with a courtesy copy of the Complaint. I also requested that she postpone the Trustee's Sale scheduled for November 14, 2007 for at least two

1 weeks so that the issues raised by the Complaint could be reviewed. Mrs. Wilkes informed me that
2 she would check with her foreclosure company to see if a postponement could be done. I requested
3 that she get back to me as soon as possible as time was running short for filing an Application for a
4 Temporary Restraining Order/Preliminary Injunction.

6 13. On November 1, 2007, I emailed Mrs. Wilkes a courtesy copy of the Complaint
7 and requested that she advise me a.s.a.p. as to whether the Trustee's Sale scheduled for November
8 14, 2007 would be postponed for at least two weeks. Mrs. Wilkes responded to the email stating 9 that she would agree to a two week postponement unless my discussions with Mr. Roszkowicz'
10 attorney resolved the issues that were brought up. I responded to Mrs. Wilkes email indicating that I
11 was unclear as to whether the trustee's sale was postponed or not and requested her written 12 assurance that it was postponed for at least two weeks.

14 14. On November 2, 2007, I telephoned Mrs. Wilkes and requested her assurance
15 that the Trustee's Sale scheduled for November 14, 2007 was postponed for at least two weeks. She 16 informed me that she was seeking to hire an attorney and would get back to me. I informed Mrs.
17 Wilkes that if I could not get her written assurance that the Trustee's Sale scheduled for November
18 14, 2007 would be postponed for at least two weeks, I would file an Application for A Temporary
19 Restraining Order on Monday, November 5, 2007.

21 15. On November 2, 2007, I received Mrs. Wilkes email, which stated that she could
22 not assure me of a 2 week postponement of the scheduled Trustee's Sale. A copy of the email dated 23 November 2, 2007 from Mrs. Wilkes, which contains a copy of previous emails starting on 24 November 1, 2007 is herein attached as Exhibit "DLR D".

26 16. A true copy of a printout from the Multiple Listing Service showing that 4545
27 Diane Way, San Diego, California sold for $673,500 and closed escrow on 10/25/2007 is herein

1 attached as Exhibit "DLR E".

2 17. I respectfully request that this Court issue an immediate TRO/Preliminary
3 Injunction to prevent the imminent foreclosure sale of my clients' residence and give my clients the 4 opportunity to have their claims heard on the merits.

6 I declare under penalty of perjury that the foregoing is true and correct to the best of 7 my knowledge. Executed this 4th day of November 2007, at Solana Beach, California.

Loan Transaction date November 8, 2006
Request for Cancellation or Postponement of Foreclosure Proceedings

Dear Mr. And Mrs. Wilkes:

Pursuant to our prior conversations, you informed me that you would provide me with a copy of the loan transaction documents for the above referenced loan. In reliance upon your representations that you would provide me with loan transaction documents showing that all legal requirements were complied with, I have refrained from filing a lawsuit. However, based on the Notice of Default and Election to Sell, which was recorded on July 5, 2007, the 90 day notice period will expire shortly. If you file a Notice of Trustee's Sale, you will leave me with no other choice than to file a lawsuit and seek an emergency Temporary Restraining Order ("TRO") and then, a Preliminary Injunction ("PI") to stop the foreclosure process. Seeking a TRO and then the PI is very time consuming and expensive.

As such, I request that you agree to postpone the filing of a Notice of Trustee's Sale for at least a short period of time after you have provided me with your documents showing compliance with the law. Thus, if you are correct, you have only lost a couple of weeks in the foreclosure process, and if you are wrong and the documents did not comply with the law, you will have potentially saved yourselves thousands of dollars.

I believe that my request is reasonable under the circumstances. I have been waiting patiently for over two weeks for you to send me your documents. Please let me know when you will have them to me. Thank you.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Deborah L. Raymond". The signature is written in a cursive style with a large, looped initial "D".

October 18, 2007

Dear Ms. Raymond,

This letter is to follow up from your letter dated September 28, 2007. Let me begin by correcting your initial statement. I did not inform you that I would provide you a copy of the loan transaction documents. My immediate reaction in receiving your first letter was shock and I telephoned you for clarification. I then sought the advice of counsel, and after speaking to several lawyers they informed me that you should be more specific. In fact, to file a TRO or a PI you would need to be more specific. I informed you that your client has a copy of the entire package and requested you let me know what was in question so that I could provide the necessary documentation. I sent you this same request in writing in a letter dated September 12, 2007 that requested you to provide specific issue(s) and that I would respond accordingly.

Since you have been unable or unwilling to provide me with specific issues other than the initial 'Notice of Rescission of Mortgage'. I will provide the appropriate documentation as outlined in the Truth in Lending Act. Under this act Mr. Labertew had the three-day right to cancel. I have provided the paperwork that he was informed of this right and clearly we are way past that time frame. Secondly, I have provided the paperwork required by TILA, which would have allowed an extended right to rescind. I hope this provides you the necessary paperwork to allow us to move forward. We made a loan in good faith to your client, Mr. Labertew and his wife and all we are asking is to be paid what is legally owed to us.

If Mr. Labertew is capable of paying us the amount that we agreed to in our contract as well as the amount we paid towards his first mortgage than we may be able to work out a solution together and avoid foreclosure. I would like to see him stay in his home, but I also must protect my own financial position.

Mr Labertew has been provided the necessary paperwork for this loan. In addition, I have extended every courtesy to him. He has not made a single payment on this loan other than one check that bounced. He said he would write another check but to this day I have not received a payment. He was not making payments on his first mortgage nor his second mortgage and he is now late with his taxes. I stayed in constant touch with his first mortgage after he failed to live up to his forbearance agreement. I delayed and requested the first mortgage delay from foreclosing when I believed he was getting a loan with Main Street Lending to pay us off. It was not until

EXHIBIT "DLR C"

Main Street Lending informed me that they were no longer working with Mr. Labertew that I had a Notice of Default filed. At this point I feel we have done everything in our power to give Mr. Labertew time to rectify the situation.

This loan was to help Mr. Labertew get out of a tough financial situation and give him time to get on his feet. Apparently, this loan did not serve the purpose for which I thought it was intended. He used our money to payoff his truck and to bring his first mortgage current. All I am asking that he repay this loan and now the additional charges that we have incurred since he failed to live up to his end of the contract.

It is my sincere hope that we can work something out that will allow Mr. Labertew to keep his home. I hope you can work with me towards this goal.

Best regards,

Hi Deborah,

I am unable to assure you at this time of a 2 week postponement. I have been unable to reach my lawyer and I feel that at this time I need legal representation due to all the accusations you have made. I will discuss this with my lawyer as soon as possible.

Recently featured in SAN DIEGO HOME & GARDEN magazine, this gorgeous home shows like a model! Set on a lush quarter acre in a quiet cul-de-sac, this property is like no other on the market! The interior is beautifully appointed with many upscale finishes. All new dual pane Low E windows throughout. The kitchen features slab granite countertops & stainless appliances including a 6-burner DCS convection oven & stove-top, pasta water spigot next to stove, lighted pot rack, full extension pull-out drawers, farmhouse style sink, and travertine floors. 3/4" bamboo floors flow throughout most of the living areas. A HUGE family room was added, featuring custom ceiling detail & a tumbled stone fireplace! Outdoors, there are multiple areas to suit anyone's desires! A large side deck off the kitchen is perfect for BBQ's & outdoor dining. The complete backyard makeover includes all new concrete decking & flagstone retaining wall for the saltwater pool & spa with waterfall! Heated by solar panels and/or gas, with all new pool equipment. Redwood stairs lead to an upper level deck overlooking the whole property. The upper-level yard area offers a garden Martha Stewart would envy! Many fruit trees & raised planters offer an abundance of organic produce without having to leave home! Fruit trees include Lemon, Pear, Orange, Plum, Apricot, Nectarine, Peach, Avocado (2), Apple, Rosemary Bush & Bay Leaf. There are also watermelon vines, squash vines, mature grape vines and tomato plants! On the other side of the yard, there is a covered potting area for orchids, a complete wall of storage cabinets & gate opening to the driveway & 2 car garage.
